to arrive when, with reinforced health, they can again take their position in the ranks of our victorious army.

Colonel Patton, commanding a brigade in Breckinridge's corps, died yesterday. He was mortally wounded in the fight of Monday, and was carried to Mr. Williams' house, in this town, from which he will be buried some time to-day.

General Early sent a flag of truce to General Sheridan to require respecting him.

Colonel Edwards, commanding of this post, has been badly engaged in collecting arms from the battle field, as well as those which were secreted by citizens in their houses after the rebels had thrown them away in their hurry to escape from the Yankees. He has already collected five thousand, and there are a great many more yet to come in.

we brought off our wagon, artillery, &c. There was considerable struggling on our part.

The Unionist army, Major General Rhodes, killed; Brigadier General Gordon (of Portsmouth, Va.), killed; Major General Pitts, said to be slightly wounded; Brigadier General York (commanding the 1st and 2nd Louisiana brigades), arm shot off; Acting Brigadier General Thomas H. Carter (commanding artillery), slightly wounded by a shot in the back, and five colonels (names not remembered), killed.

Brigadier General Battle, of North Carolina, is in command of Rhodes' division.

The Chronicle's informant states that the force of the enemy was very large—more than two-fold our numbers. Up to the time of our being flanked we were pushing them back.

WAR NEWS FROM THE SOUTH.
ATLANTA.
EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS—SHERMAN'S COMMUNICATIONS WELL GUARDED.
SEPTEMBER 26, 1864.

One thousand of our men, including General Gordon, were exchanged at Rough and Ready this morning, and a portion of them have arrived here.

The railroad is working through from Atlanta to Nashville, and is heavily guarded at all bridges. There are three bridges of negroes at Chattanooga.

Our prisoners met a great many of Sherman's men going back Georgia. They think he has still an immense army at Atlanta and along the railroad.

AN ENTIRE GEORGIA REGIMENT TAKE THE OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.
SEPTEMBER 26, 1864.

One thousand of our men were exchanged at Rough and Ready to-day. The oath of allegiance was offered at Atlanta, and freely taken by many prisoners, and it is said by one entire Georgia regiment.

There had been no movement of the enemy from Atlanta up to last night, and nothing is known of the whereabouts of our army.

Sherman has issued an order forbidding all citizens to come to the aid of Nashville from beyond it.

REPORTED DEFEAT OF UNION TROOPS NEAR FAIRBURN, GA.
SEPTEMBER 26, 1864.

There was a brush between General Hood's army and the enemy yesterday afternoon, on the West Point road, near Fairburn, in which the latter were driven back. The ten days' truce expired to-night.

THE RAILROAD BETWEEN ATLANTA AND DALTON TURNED UP.
SEPTEMBER 26, 1864.

Martin's brigade rode up the track between Atlanta and Dalton.

EXPIRATION OF THE TRUCE—ACTIVE OPERATIONS EXPECTED.
SEPTEMBER 26, 1864.

[From the Richmond Examiner, Sept. 23.]

The ten days' truce between Hood and Sherman expired last night, and we may now look for a resumption of active operations. Sherman's plan, hitherto concealed by the truce, will now be decided. We shall soon see whether he proposes to march on Augusta, Millville and Macon all at once, or to shut himself up with a small force at Atlanta and await the results of the campaign in Virginia.

OUR TELEGRAMS FROM HOOD'S ARMY ARE INTERESTING.
SEPTEMBER 26, 1864.

Our telegrams from Hood's army are interesting, but give us no notion of real importance. They are all nothing but a series of reports of the enemy's movements, and of our own. Sherman has been exchanging.

Mobile.
SEPTEMBER 26, 1864.

Nothing of the slightest importance has occurred here since last report.

SECOND TRUCE.
SEPTEMBER 26, 1864.

Arrangements have been completed for the exchange of all the prisoners captured in Mobile Bay.

CHARLESTON, S. C.
SEPTEMBER 26, 1864.

The enemy are again in motion. A column, twelve or fifteen hundred strong, left Morris Island to-day, and have gone to Charleston.

THE UNION TROOPS AGAIN IN MOTION.
SEPTEMBER 26, 1864.

The enemy are again in motion. A column, twelve or fifteen hundred strong, left Morris Island to-day, and have gone to Charleston.

THE FUGITIVE OF THE FIGHT.
SEPTEMBER 26, 1864.

Since our last report the enemy have kept up a brisk fire on the city, and we may now look for a resumption of active operations. Sherman's plan, hitherto concealed by the truce, will now be decided. We shall soon see whether he proposes to march on Augusta, Millville and Macon all at once, or to shut himself up with a
